

THE LUMEN CYNAGUA

PREPARATION: This is the Ceremony to acknowledge the victor of Arts & Sciences Championship, naming that individual the Principality Artisan. This ceremony is performed at Spring Coronet, upon the conclusion of the past year's Cynagua's Annual Arts and Sciences Championship competition. The Prince and Princess, with the Ministers of Arts and Sciences, should determine whether there has been a winner for the past year.

Scroll/Promissory: None

Token: Championship Token

 NOTE: DO NOT CALL RECIPIENT(S) YET!

Herald: The candle is the symbol of the Arts and Sciences and represents the light of learning and art in this principality. The Lumen Cynagua is given to the individual who, by virtue of their labors in the arts and sciences, brings the light of learning and art to the principality. This award represents the pinnacle of achievement in the arts and sciences in Cynagua. Let _____ come before Their Highnesses.

(Victor comes forward and kneels.)

Herald: It is the pleasure of the Coronet to reward exceptional talent and skill in the Arts and Sciences within the principality. Therefore, the Coronet recognizes the individual who, with research and skill, emerged victorious in the Annual Arts and Sciences Championship of Cynagua. The Lumen Cynagua bears the responsibility of serving as the Principality Artisan over the coming year, giving instruction to all who would learn the Arts and Sciences in which the artisan is particularly skilled. Furthermore, you will support and nurture the growth of the arts and sciences in Cynagua.

 Princess: As you were victorious in the Arts and Sciences Competition this past year, we name you Lumen Cynagua, the Light of Cynagua. Will you accept this honor from Us?

Candidate: I will.

 Prince: Do you, _____, pledge to Us that you will perform the duties of the Principality Artisan in so far as they are within your power?

Candidate: I so swear.

 Princess: Wear this pendant as a sign of Our favor and a symbol of your achievement.

(The Princess places the token around the victor's neck.)

Herald: For _____, victor of the Arts and Sciences
Championship of Cynagua and Principality Artisan. Hip, hip!

 Prince/

You have Our leave to depart.

 Princess:
